SUGGESTED READING

IUPUI School of Education, Urban Education PhD

The following titles are indicative of the materials and literature that will be presented, assigned, or referred to in courses as part of the Urban Education PhD program.

You can access all of these titles through the IUPUI University Library collection (in print or e-book format) or through lending services from other IU campuses or other higher education institutions (Interlibrary Loan).

Please check the library website or contact your librarian for more information.

